Understanding Our Families, Understanding Ourselves

Saturday, October 19, 2013, 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.
CGS Library, 2201 Broadway, Suite LL2, Oakland, CA 94612

Genealogy is more than building family trees with names, dates, and places. By looking at families at a "systems" level, you can learn how generations have an impact on one another. Join Ron Arons for Understanding Our Families, Understanding Ourselves: Genealogy Meets Family Systems Theory - a fascinating new way to look at family history. Ron will discuss a different kind of family trees - genograms - diagrams to map behavioral traits through multiple generations. Learn more. Register online.

We Need Your Books!

Book Donations Build the Library

The donation of books accounts significantly for the growth in holdings of the California Genealogical Society Library. Duplicate books and those that do not meet the library's retention guidelines are sold and the proceeds support the library.

In addition to our eBay and in-house sales, the library committee is planning to have books on exhibit and for sale at our upcoming Ancestry Day in San Francisco on November 9, 2013. Please email the library committee if you have books to donate. Learn more.

California Ancestors: They Came from Everywhere!
Herman and Alice Robinson and the family car.

This is a 1918 photograph of my father, Herman Robinson, and his sister Alice, in front of the family car. Herman and Alice were the children of William and Caroline Persson Robinson who settled in Los Angeles where the photo was taken.

My grandfather William was a mechanic and he loved cars. This automobile - a Partin-Palmer - had a windshield that could fold down. I have a similar photograph taken the year before that shows it that way. Note the "Third Liberty Loan Subscriber" sign in the window. That helped date the picture to 1918, when Herman was about six years old and Alice was about three.
